

He Flies Through the Air!

Cherry Carl

He flies through the air
And drifts to the ground.

He swoops and he loops
As he glides all around.

He soars way up and away he goes
On feathery wings that make no sound.
He soars again and swirls through the sky,
My brand new friend who knows how to fly.

Note to students: add wings to the picture!